Case No.

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

22 PAUL IACOVACCI ("Plaintiff"), by and through his counsel, Ryan A. Andersen, Esq., of 23 Andersen Law Firm, Ltd., complains against Defendants as follows:

24 I. PARTIES

25 1. Plaintiff is, and was at all times relevant hereto, an individual and domiciliary of the 26 State of New York.

27 2. ROBERT W. NOKLEY ("Nokley") is, and was at all times relevant hereto, an individual and domiciliary of the State of Nevada.

3. NOKLEY GROUP, LLC ("NG", and, with Nokley, "Defendants") is, and was at all times relevant hereto, a Nevada limited liability company with its principal place of business in the

1 State of Nevada. Upon information and belief, NG is authorized to transact business in the State of 2 Nevada and regularly conducts business in Clark County, Nevada.

3 4. The true names and capacities of DOE DEFENDANTS I through X, inclusive, are 4 unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sue such Defendants by these fictitious names. Plaintiff is
5 informed and believes that each Defendant is responsible in some manner for the events and happenings
6 referred to, and damages caused thereby to Plaintiff as alleged herein. Plaintiff will ask leave of this
7 Court to amend its Complaint to insert true names and capacities when such Defendants have been
8 ascertained to join such Defendants in this action.

9 5. The true names and capacities of ROE CORPORATIONS XI through XX, inclusive,
10 are unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sue such Defendants by these fictitious names. Plaintiff is 11 informed and believes that each Defendants is responsible in some manner for the events and 12 happenings referred to, and damages caused thereby to Plaintiff as alleged herein. Plaintiff will ask
13 leave of this Court to amend its Complaint to insert true names and capacities when such Defendants
14 have been ascertained to join such Defendants in this action

15 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16 6. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each of the preceding paragraphs in this
17 Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

18 7. The Court has jurisdiction over this civil action pursuant to 28 USC § 1332(a), as 19 Plaintiff is a citizen of the State of New York, Defendants are each citizens of the State of Nevada, and 20 the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs.

21 8. Venue is proper as the actions and harms arising from such actions occurred in Clark
22 County, Nevada.

23 III. GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

24 9. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each of the preceding paragraphs in this
25 Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

1 10. On or about October 7, 2016, Plaintiff entered into a written contract with Defendants,
2 entitled “Participation Agreement” (“Agreement”). The Agreement is signed by Plaintiff, and by
3 Nokley, both on behalf of NG and individually.

4 11. In the Agreement, Defendants stated they were “purchasing workers compensation
5 accounts receivable” (“Receivables”), and would be placing these accounts with collection agency or 6 agencies to collect the amounts due.

7 12. Defendants represented to Plaintiff that the Receivables had a face value of 8 approximately $29,779,925.41.

9 13. Pursuant to the Agreement, Plaintiff made a cash investment in NG of $150,000.00
10 (“Investment”), in return for a 30% participation interest in NG.

11 14. Pursuant to the Agreement, NG was required to provide Plaintiff with timely
12 information regarding: (i) the servicing and collection probabilities of the Receivables; (ii) payment
13 promise reports received from insurance carriers; and (iii) reconcile reporting for payments actually 14 received.

15 15. Pursuant to the Agreement, NG was required to remit performance payments equal to 16 30% of funds received by NG.

17 16. After paying the Investment to Defendants, Defendants refused to provide required
18 information to Plaintiff, failed to properly communicate with Plaintiff, and, most troubling, failed to 19 remit payments to Plaintiff, except for the following payments: $2,689.42 received on November 4,
20 2016; $3,005.00 received on November 21, 2016; and $3,000.00 received on December 2, 2016
21 (“Participation Payments”).

22 17. Starting in December of 2016, communication with Defendants became even more
23 difficult, with Nokley failing to be on several scheduled phone calls and with Nokley’s assistant’s
24 phone going immediately go to voicemail.

25 18. Plaintiff became extremely and understandably concerned regarding the safety of the 26 Investment and his prospects of receiving any money back from Defendants, especially in the face of 27 Defendants’ ongoing and worsening deflection, obfuscation, and avoidance.

1 19. Plaintiff communicated his concerns to Defendants, and Defendants responded, through
2 Nokley, first by trying to mollify Plaintiff, then by claiming Plaintiff was being needlessly paranoid.

3 20. Plaintiff continued to press his concerns and demand access to information,
4 communicating such requests by phone, email, and text message.

5 21. Eventually, in the face of Plaintiff's appropriate demands for information, Defendants
6 agreed to settle the controversy with Plaintiff by buying out Plaintiff's interest in the Company
7 ("Settlement"). Specifically, Defendants agreed on December 12, 2016, to repay the Investment with 8 a $30,000.00 return on investment, for a total payment of $180,000.00 ("Settlement Payment"). The 9 Participation Payments and any other payments made by Defendants prior to paying the Settlement
10 Payment would reduce the Settlement Payment. The Settlement is evidenced by emails between 11 Nokley and Plaintiff setting forth all of its material terms.

12 22. After agreeing to the Settlement Payment, Nokley told Plaintiff that Nokley was 13 attempting to obtain a loan from JPMorgan Chase Bank to fund the full amount of the Settlement
14 Payment. Other than Nokley's asserted attempts to obtain the loan, and his statement that he would
15 liquidate an IRA to fund the Settlement Payment, Plaintiff has received no real evidence that Nokley
16 actually attempted to obtain funds to pay the Settlement Payment. As Defendants' purported efforts to 17 fund the Settlement continued, his communications with Plaintiff became more sporadic and Nokley
18 became increasingly difficult to reach and defensive regarding his actions.

19 23. Despite promising Plaintiff the Settlement Payment would be made on or before
20 December 16, 2016, Defendants have not made the Settlement Payment and have not paid any other
21 distributions or payments of any kind to Plaintiff, except the Participation Payments described above.

22 24. On or about January 11, 2017, Nokley disclosed to Plaintiff that he had removed 23 approximately $44,000.00 from NG without Plaintiff's permission and without paying amounts
24 required by the Agreement to be paid to Plaintiff, purportedly to fund medical treatments for his wife.

25 25. As of the filing of the instant Complaint, Plaintiff has no idea what other monies Nokley
26 has wrongfully appropriated for his own purposes, and, indeed Plaintiff does not even know if 27 Defendants actually purchased the Receivables.

1 26. In preparing the instant Complaint, Plaintiff learned for the first time on January 16,
2 2017, that this is not the first time that Nokley has engaged in fraudulent business dealings. Nokley
3 was sued in 2015 in the Eighth Judicial District Court for Clark County, Nevada (“Prior Action”), Case
4 No. A-15-713931-C. In the Prior Action, Nokley was accused of wrongfully removing all funds from 5 a bank account belonging to Medical Lien Solutions II, LLC (“MLS”) and barring the managing
6 member of MLS from management of such company.

7 27. A temporary restraining order and then a preliminary injunction was issued against 8 Nokley in the Prior Action, and a receiver was appointed to preserve the value of MLS while the 9 management dispute was resolved. Nokley agreed to a settlement in the Prior Action, but violated the 10 terms of such settlement, leading to the entry of a $500,000.00 judgment against him.

11 28. In this judgment, Nokley and any of his businesses or agents were enjoined from 12 competing with MLS in any way, including being “specifically enjoined from engaging in the business
13 of buying, brokering, or servicing medical related accounts receivable.” It is likely Defendants violated
14 this injunction by purchasing and servicing the Receivables, assuming Defendants actually purchased
15 the Receivables.

16 29. Plaintiff was completely and totally unaware of the Prior Action, the judgment entered
17 in the Prior Action, and the injunction against Nokley contained within such judgment. Had Plaintiff
18 known of any of this, he would never have went into business with Defendants.

19 53. Defendants actions were in denial of, and inconsistent with, Plaintiff's right and title to

62. Defendants failed to disclose a material fact of which they were actually aware, specifically the existence of the Prior Action and the fact that they were enjoined from entering the very business contemplated by the Agreement, the purchasing and servicing of the Receivables.

63. Through their silence, Defendants intended to, and did in fact, mislead Plaintiff.

64. Defendants knew that failing to disclose this relevant information would mislead Plaintiff and failed to disclose this information in order to mislead Plaintiff.

65. Through their silence, Defendants intended to induce Plaintiff to enter into the Agreement and to make the Investment.

66. When entering into the Agreement and making the Investment, Plaintiff justifiably relied upon Defendants' misrepresentation and material omissions.

67. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of $10,000.00 as a result of Defendants' actions.
